Therefore of G D Prince, a sand four san tage to the contest and the product of American S of the contest and the contest of the contest of

was held, by which a co less men then gathered about Lawrence openly in manners and morals. decla ed their intention to destroy the town and drive off its inhabitants, and expressed their cears that such would he the result unless he interposed as a United States officer to protect

They made a similar communication to, an! emand of protection from, Gov. Shannon The only astisfaction they obtained from Mar-shal or Governor was written responses 1 w h they were taun ed with their former alleged m steeds to declaring that they would eo at er as a Lu lity the acts of the Legisla-

On the 17th, they again addressed the Marshal, reques g h m to protect the set lere 1 the neighborhood from the robbery and stealing which his posse were daily perpetating Thy also on the same day proposed to the Marshat and Governor to a reender all the arm in L wrence, not excepting their private arms, to Col. Summer so soon as he should bring them a hody of U. S. troops for their protec' ou. To this proposal the Marshal and Governor acceded as being all that could be asked and gave their assurance that if no re istance was made their property should be 110 another suterview with the Marshal, when i appeared his ione was entirely changed. It apneared that the men composing the posse would be sa shed with nothing less than the des uon of private property. This feeling he represented as so strong that he could not control it. They then off red, if he would furnish t em with arm, to give him the necessary a d to protect the property. This offer he decined under the pretext of a want of arms. He nowever, renewed his promue to protect the botel, said he would enter the town with or a small una med po ae, and promised not to dis miss the posse in the vicinity of the town Governor Shannon positively refused to laterfere or to anmmon assistance from Colone numner. He said the people of Lawrence must take such consequences as might ereus and, when reminded that such lawless outrage bring upon the Territory all the horrors of civ Il war, he turned angrely away with the ex pression uttered as he went-"War then it is hy God!"

On the 25th, a large hand, armed with U.S. muskets, &c., furnished by the Governor, ap peared near the town, marching under a red flag with the mo'to, "Sou hern Rights." The deputy-marshal then entered the town with a posse of ten men, summoned several prominent ritizens of the town to aid him, who obeyed with alacrity, and, after making two arrests, retired to the posse. The marshal dismissed the posse, when they were immediately resummoned by the notorious Sheriff Jones, who con ducted them into the town and demanded of the citizens the surrender of all their arms, and gave five minul s for a rep'y. He was an-ewered by General Pomeroy, who assented to the surrender of the two cannon and of all ri-fles, if any such there were, not private property. This offer heing accepted and complied with, it was announced that the hotel and printing-offices must be destroyed. A y, the hotel, with most of its costly furniture was burnt down and the two printing-offs were destroyed. In the mean time, nearly all the houses in the town were broken open and even to wearing apparel. The house of Gov.
